THE DIRECTOR

I saw the original cast of OUTSIDE EDGE in the summer of 1979 at the Hampstead Theatre with Julia McKenzie as Miriam and Maureen Lipman as Maggie and knew that I wanted to do this play in the future and play Maggie. 20 years later I knew I was too old and not tall enough for the part so I thought I would direct it instead!

After Mike Robinson's successful production of Frankenstein in the round I realised that we could use the alcove for the pavilion and act on the floor to create the feeling of space you need for a cricket field.

My thanks to everyone who has helped realise my dream.

APPEAL

I am not only stealing himself to make a stand at the wicket, as Kevin, but also to launch myself out of plane from 10,000 feet to raise money for the Anthony Nolan Bone Marrow Trust. What started out as a joke between my friend, Mike Deller and myself to rid ourselves of a life-long fear of heights, has grown to become a reality. Mike and I chose the Anthony Nolan Trust after learning that one of St Michael's Players friends, Rula Lenska (currently filming for the BBC's Holiday programme), is a prominent supporter of the Trust.

Proceeds from the Wednesday performance will be donated to this appeal and if you wish to make a donation or pledge you may do so in the foyer.

My grateful thanks for all your support – I'll need it as well as a parachute!

ST MICHAELS PLAYERS

We perform a minimum of two full length plays a year, normally in the Spring and Autumn, as well as arrange a number of other functions – One Act Plays, Play Readings, Annual Supper, Barbecue and BISISIPI (bring it, sing it, say it, play it).

As part of our 50th year celebrations, we entered last year's autumn production of THE ODD COUPLE (female version), in the Hounslow Drama Festival and gained two awards –

Best Play : director Dave Lye and Best Actor : Jane Atkinson.

We are always on the lookout for new members to perform or just help out with the productions.

MEMBERSHIP / MAILING DETAILS

If you would like join St Michael's Players or be included on the mailing list for future productions please contact :
